THE RECONCILIATION.

Two urchins strolling on the beach,
Beside the tranquil sea,
Beheld a pearly block, and each
Cried, "That belongs to me!"
And both at once with eager hands,
Began to scramble in the sands.

Like alabaster pure and white,
Upon the pebbled shore,
That treasure lay, a lovely sight,
And well worth fighting o'er;
Long struggled the contending twain
The prize so coveted to gain.

SECRETARY WINDOM ON THE COUNTRY'S FINANCES.

He Believes Money Is Quite Plentiful—
A Day's Appointments—Other
Washington News.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Secretary of the Treasury Windom is not troubled by the published reports that the reserve in the New York banks is getting dangerously low, and that there are indications of a stringency in the money market which may call for some action by the treasury department.

The secretary said to-day that he could see no indication of money being tight, from the fact that while the department offered to buy bonds at a liberal figure the offers were not numerous. "If money was in demand," he continued, "bonds would not be held back as they now are. The price we have established is a liberal one, and on the bonds the holders are getting only about 2 per cent, while on the 4 1/2 the interest is only a trifle over 1 1/2, yet there is no anxiety shown by the holders of these bonds to sell them to the government and convert them into cash.

"The surplus now amounts in round figures, $750,000, of which $45,000,000 is in the hands of the banks, and $14,000,000 in the treasury. The money in the banks is about the same as when Mr. Fairchild was Secretary of the Treasury. It has been reduced somewhat, but not very much, as I do not care to do anything which might disturb the trade. It is true this amount might be increased, but I do not believe the plan and should not care to increase amount without the action of Congress. So you see the great bulk of the surplus is in the hands of the people, and the treasury could not use very much more, unless authorized by Congress.

"Will you increase the purchase of silver?" Mr. Windom was asked.
"No," was his reply, in a very emphatic tone. "I see no indication of a stringency money market," the Secretary added, "and the reports which reach me do not show that it is generally feared. Since I have been in the treasury department I can safely say that I have not received a half dozen appeals for money or requests that the department would liberate money. I have not heard that the New York banks were losing their money, and the general impression conveyed to me has been that money was plentiful."

MAHONE AND BRADY AT PEACE.

The National Republican Committee Arranges a Compromise.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—A committee of five from the Republican national executive committee, consisting of Chairman Quay, Vice-Chairman, Clarkson, Iowa, Treasurer Dudley of Indiana, Mr. Fessenden of Connecticut, and Mr. Hobart of New Jersey, has been in conference here for three days, with a view to harmonizing the trouble in the Republican party in Virginia. A conclusion has been reached approving of the call for a State convention, to be issued by William Mahone as chairman of the regular committee, and Mr. Brady of the other side concurred in this action of the committee.

The complaint of the anti-Mahone Republicans was that they had not been allowed to have their own convention in the precinct, county and State; that the chairman of the party committees, appointed by Gen. Mahone's chairman, always named the temporary chairman and secretary of the precinct and county conventions, and did not give free and open conventions for the expression of individual Republican preferences. The call for the State convention to be held Aug. 23 is so broadened as to give the protection thus asked.

The national committee has given its approval of the call. Of the five members of the national committee, only one, call Senator Quay has always been recognized as identified in sympathy with the Mahone element, and the four others have been in the forefront in national conventions and committees of sympathy with the other side.

MR. BLAINE AND HAYT.

Why the Secretary of State Proposed a Commission.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The Star, after referring to the communication which it was said President Salomon of Hayti had made to this government shortly before his death offering to give to the United States the absolute right to the harbor of Mole San Nicolas, which might establish a coaling station for our vessels, there, says: "This proposition of President Salomon was still unacted upon when Mr. Blaine went into the State department and it is believed that the government's incentive for his proposition to send a commission to Hayti with a view of ascertaining whether or not Legitim was disposed to give us as liberal concessions as were offered by President Salomon. President Salomon's reason for making this offer, it was said, was to effect a closer alliance with the United States, with the hope that it would insure a stable government in Hayti."

Mr. Horr Declines.

Yours most truly, R. G. Horr."

INDIANA POLITICS.

The Republican Central Committee Meets and Elects Officers.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 20.—The meeting of the Republican central committee brought more politicians to the city than have been here since President Harrison took his departure.

Resolutions were passed at a long meeting Friday night, not adjourning until toward midnight. Attorney-General Michener was elected chairman, M. R. Sulzer of Madison vice-chairman, and Joseph I. Evans of Columbus treasurer, all unanimously.

The fight was on the secretary. Ex-Chairman—now United States Treasurer—Huston had for his candidate W. H. Smith, Indiana correspondent of the Commercial Gazette, and the members of the committee who conversed upon the subject expressed the opinion that the rule adopted two years ago allowing the chairman to appoint the secretary should stand, and the Indiana central committee outside the committee expressed a like opinion. This sentiment prevailed and Frank R. Milligan of Henry county was selected.

Resolutions were passed endorsing Harrison's administration and the new chairman made a speech in which he said that so long as he was chairman he would not be a candidate directly or indirectly for office nor would he take part in the nomination of any candidate for any office, of any character whatsoever. Any other course, he declared, would be treason.
